I was born in 1942 and grew up listening to big band music and the tunes of WW2. I'm writing a book about a fictional WW2 agency and I listen to your station while I'm writing to keep me focused by listening to music from that era. Thank you...Len

Hi,

Thank you for this. I am sitting in the sun with Gigi (great grandma) who is 96. I found this after she was describing WWII food. She doesn't approve but the music helped her eat and now enjoy some outside time.

Dan

I wrote back and asked if he was referring to my WWII Jukebox, to which he replied,

Ah, yes!!

Gigi is actually my Grandma but for my nieces and nephews we call her Gigi. Grandpa was a WWII vet and spent most of the war overseas. She was wheelchair foot dancing today after a pretty bad fall. This was a fantastic find.

Thanks so much.

Dan

Cheers to Marion from Kentucky <I moved from Missouri>

Like what I see as a new format for the Jukebox. You may have had it with this format for a long time...with retirement I simply do not spend that much time with my computer.

730,000 viewers and users...Remarkable...Definitely you are providing a public service as well as honoring your father and all of those of the Greatest Generation.

Ten years of service... Thanks

Thanks for putting together such a great list of WWII-era music!

My grandfather, Hugh Carmichael, served in Europe during WWII as part of the support troops for a B-24 squadron. His brother, Virgil Carmichael, was a lieutenant in the 82nd Airborne who jumped at D-Day and was cited in Cornelius Ryan's book, "A Bridge Too Far."

I am a former Navy officer and now a U.S. Government teacher at a high school in Tennessee. I have always loved WWII-era music and just wanted to reach out and thank you for putting together such a great list of music and making it available for all to enjoy!

Kind regards,
S. Carmichael

This is the MOST AMAZING site and music I have ever heard. I don't believe in reincarnation but after listening to this I just might. Thank you for making this website.

Ms. Chard,

I just want to let you know how much I appreciate and enjoy your WWII jukebox. I am a history teacher at Rutherford High School in Panama City, Florida. This morning, my first period 11th grade IB History of the Americas class had a 70th anniversary of V-E Day commemoration. We've been studying WWII, so today, we all wore red, white, and blue, posted pictures and newspaper headlines from the original celebrations all around the room, decorated the classroom patriotically, and ate red, white, and blue frosted donuts for breakfast. Your WWII jukebox was the soundtrack to our celebration, and the students loved hearing the songs. It made our celebration feel more authentic, and we all enjoyed it. I just wanted to let you know how your site touched my classroom. Thank you so much!

Hi Marion, I just wanted to say thank you for this website and the work you must have to do to maintain it. I was listening today and just realized that I first stumbled across it in 2006 at university, and have been listening to the music every few months ever since, and I just realized what a significant amount of time that was, and wanted to say thank you from Australia. I remember the first time I heard 'Songs My Mother Taught Me' - and the track on your site is just so wonderful - I bawled my eyes out...

All the very best,
Georgia

Hi or should I say "Bonjour",

I would like to congratulate you for this amazing choice of music. Plus, the presentation is nice.

This is quite nice for me as my wife is from Michigan and still an American citizen while we have lived in France for years. This music is very appealing to me right now, 70 years after D-Day, as my mom's cousin was a USAAF pilot on a B-17 fortress and flew 35 bombing missions from England mainly to Germany. He, Rene S. Nine, was part of the 398th BG., 600th SQ., based in Nuthampstead, GB.

Best regards.

HELLO,

I WAS 6 YEARS OLD PLAYING OUTSIDE, WHEN ALL SORTS OF HORNS, WHISTLES, AND BELLS WERE GOING OFF! I RAN INSIDE AND ASKED MY MOTHER WHAT WAS HAPPENING? MOM SAID, "THE WAR IS OVER AND DADDY'S COMING HOME!" My Dad had joined the Navy and was placed in the Sea Bees doing construction etc. He didn't see fighting action but was a huge support, just as we were at home by saving tin foil and fat grease, and using our ration stamps-and sometimes having to darken every window in preparation of an attack! I now have a huge collection of phonographs and play the 78 record's music of the 1900's up to 1948. This is a wonderful web site.

THANKS FOR YOUR EFFORTS! Retired teacher and coach, Mr. Lyn Levens

Marion, I am a listener of VI corps music. I found a recording of Kate Smith's God bless America on www.archive.org. Hope that you add this version to your play list. Here is the link to upload the song. God Bless and keep up the good work.

Hi, I am a homeschool Mom who found your site while looking for WW2 music for our history lesson. I was wondering if I could pin your site onto Pinterest under my Homeschool Board, in case others might like to hear the great music and possibly use it to enhance their lessons.

If you would rather I not pin it, I totally understand. Our family will still look forward to coming and enjoying your site.

I love how you have honored your Dad and the other engineers and Veterans and from the War. Both of my Grandfathers were in the war, and while teaching my kids about history, I really try impressing the importance of honoring those who fought for our freedoms.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Erin Roy

My Dad talks about a song: I'll be home in a year little darlin. They were singing it when he was drafted, because that was how long he was to be in. Turns out he was in four 4 years, 9 months, and 17 days, 'cause Pearl Harbor was bombed when he had 9 months in. Think you could find that song?

I just found your site tonight, and I will take my laptop to him tomorrow so he can enjoy a few of the songs.

Thanks for the great resource.

Wanted to thank you for assembling this site. I work with k12 schools statewide in Illinois to train them on how to interview and capture any remaining WWII vets on our state. Our project kids often reference your site as they do their final projects. Not date they have captured in excess of 300 personal stories.

Thank you again for your work.

Hi Marion:

My name is Steve Maieli and as mentioned before I'm a Veteran and the Founder of Transitioning Veteran. You can find me and my website on Facebook where I have over 3000 followers and I wanted to let you know that I just shared your website with all my fans, they will love the incredible WWII music collection you collected. I'm actually listening to it as I type this.

I had to share your website to my fans, because people appreciate these types of stories of a daughter doing what she can to pay tribute to her Veteran father. And I love sharing something for our past veterans, because I'm a true believer that their sacrifices are what have given us the benefits we receive today as veterans. Check me out on Facebook if you on there as well.

So I hope my email reaches you, I'm a big fan of your website and I'll be sharing your website down the road again for sure.

I give my Thanks to your father as well for his service to our country.

Steve Maieli

Thanks for the great site! I used it today during a WWII lesson for my 11th grade US history students. YouTube and most music sites are blocked by the school district - but your site worked perfectly. Thanks so much!

Lisa Evans Aiken County Public Schools

The song "Spying Is Trying" sounds a lot like Elsa Lanchester. This is just a guess but may be a good start for checking out. She was at about the height of her career at the time of this song. She also had a career that included some burlesque and singing. Just a thought. I love the music at the site. Thanks for all your work and for sharing.

Loved it, it is the music my mom and dad listened to when I was growing up. Can I recommend a couple of additions?

Bluebird of Happiness

I'm in the Mood for Love

Both of them were my dad's favorites. He passed last year at 86. He was a paratroop who jumped on Corregidor and several other places, my mom was a WAVE and was the Operations Yeoman at Norfolk Naval Air Station, they were high school sweethearts and married after the war. Thanks for the memories. I'm going to set the link up on my mom's computer and show her how to get to it.

Hello Marion,

I love your website! I just sent a small donation to help you keep it on the web. I know how much work it is to put it together, but know that it is truly appreciated by many. What a wonderful tribute to your father. My dad served in the Navy aboard the USS Medusa in the South Pacific from 1942 until 1945. I made a CD of some of the old war songs to play before our Ventura, California Veterans Home USO Show. Thanks so much for making those songs available and so easy to download to CDs.

Thanks again, Marion!

HAPPY NEW YEAR

J. McCormick, Ventura, CA

Were it not for the fact that I'm broke, I'd happily donate to your site. But I would at least like to tell you that it's truly excellent, and I thank you for it. I'm recommending it to others, and who knows? – they might well enjoy it as much as I do and have a few bucks to spare.

Best regards,

Fan in the woods of West Virginia

PS. May I suggest that you add one of the greatest of all WWII songs, the 1943 "You'd Be So Nice to Come Home To"?

Your 6th Corps site is great. I'm 14, but I consistently find the music from WW2 to be much better than anything else. I especially like Fats Waller's "Ain't Misbehavin". Thank you very much!

Mack Sludger

Hi there, just a quick hello to let you know how far your music collection travels and how it is used in perhaps unseen ways. I'm a keen submarine sim player and I'm currently piping your music thru my PC while playing Silent Hunter 4, a US sub sim set in the pacific. Certainly fits the bill... (: So cheers mate, much appreciated!

Hi Marion: Just got to say the music is absolutely brilliant, as a young child whilst my parents were dancing in the local church halls I used to be safely left at the side of the stage in my pram as they danced, as I got older I still have the memories of my Mum playing the piano as my Dad sang. When he was on his way to a posting after training in Canada in Nova Scotia, being billeted with a family called Crosby ironically enough, they called in at New York and I still have some of the sheet music he bought for her there. So this music is burned into my brain, I was told on the day he came home, Mum not knowing that he was, as he knocked on the door the radio was playing the tune AT LAST MY LOVE HAS COME ALONG, I'm sure you know it Always used to bring a tear to Mums eyes when she heard it on the radio sadly both gone now but this music always takes me back, the Crosby family always sent us a parcel at Christmas with toys, decorations and gifts that were not available here in England. Still researching for my son in laws Fathers data, hope this finds you well keep up the good work.

Sincere Regards,
Tony Melling Cheshire England

Marion, I was born in 1940 and of the Silent Generation. I am currently in the process of writing My Chronicles for my kids and grandkids mainly of The Greatest Generation. Feeling that it is the obligation of The Silent Generation to tell the future generations about The Greatest Generation. In the process I am making a WWII CD for my mother-in-law who is in an Assisted Living Community. I just happened across your site while searching for WWII songs. I downloaded about 16 songs so far from Amazon.com and thanks to your site, can add greatly to them by downloading many of what you have collected. Thanks a million for the time and effort of putting all of this together. I could write a multi-page email right here, but I will spare you. Thanks so much.

Keith Conklin - Twinsburg, Ohio

Marion, great page. I am only 63 and wasn't born when these were playing, but I remember my parents singing some of these...brings back memories for me... my regret is that either of my parents are here to enjoy it with me...

Respectfully, Jim Dispirito

My dad was a WWII veteran. He had all these songs + more on 78's that I heard as a child.

He died May 12th 2011, in his 89th year.

The night before his death we listened to some of these classics on a radio in his hospice room.....

After his death I found your site. He'd have loved it. I know I do.

Thanks for the memories,

Marcheta Claus

Marion –

I enjoyed the music very much and I'm sure those who lived during that time appreciate it, also. But, Marion the significance of this music captures the emotion and value system of an era which seems to have been lost in today's culture. When the kids of today finally get fed up with the superficial jungle music of today and start looking for more meaning and purpose of their lives, I hope your site continues to be available to begin to show them the way. Perhaps a marketing orientation to today's audience would be helpful in stimulating interest to a younger group. I hope it is not lost!

THX KCM

Great website and wonderful music. I grew up listening to this stuff because it's what my folks listened to. My dad served with the 99th Infantry Division during WWII and I have been so blessed to have the opportunity to travel with some of the veterans from that group during their trips back to Europe. What a privilege and an honor. This year will mark the final reunion of the 99th in Kansas City and it is my understanding that the U.S. Army band will be providing music from the 40s for our dancing and listening enjoyment. We are looking forward to it very much. Thanks to all the veterans of every generation-especially those from WWII.

Sheri MacDougall

My fifth grade class is studying WW2. I wanted them to get the feel of that era and thought the music would do that best. Your song list is excellent and to include some French and German songs and Marlene Dietrich, Glenn Miller, etc. Thank you so much. You wouldn't have thought 5th graders could sit so still.

Hi,

Just wanted to thank you for your WWII music. I click on every time I turn my computer on to write my WWII novel. The first one is with a New York Editor, and I'm halfway through my sequel.

Your music keeps me in the WWII mindset and I so thoroughly enjoy that era.

Thanks again.

Hi - just a quick thank you for all the work you have done on your website, forwarded the link to my father last night and it made his day! It will be his new "favorite" radio station :-)

Hi Marion:

I woke up this morning feeling very nostalgic for the Music of Your Life, as they called it for the first 50 years following WW II, and after an online search I came across your site, and I've been listening for well over an hour so far, & loving it! I'm 55, so obviously I never lived through the era, but I believe that I learned my love of this music through osmosis in the womb and as a young child. My parents were both musical, and while dad was a little too young for the war, he was a multi-instrumentalist & band teacher when I was born. Big band music was still pretty popular and the radio was always playing at our house in my early years.

Here in Central Florida, for many years we had an AM station, WHOO, that played the music 18 hours a day, and always used an era-authentic sign-off at midnight. I always felt cheated if I missed that signing off, and also cheated that the music wouldn't be back until 6; I wanted to have it both ways! About 15 years ago, though, the owners decided to sell the slot to Disney, and I want to believe that it was only for a bucketful of money and not the alternative, that there are far too few of that greatest generation left among us now to make such a radio station a viable commercial enterprise. What a sad and empty world that will be when that day comes, but I hope that it's long in coming.

But I'm just babbling here. I really just wanted to say that this is such a thoughtful, practical and loving tribute to your father, and I'm glad that I found your site. I imagine you have some great tales of your memories of him, and the war time buddies you met, and I hope to be able to take some time to read more on the site in the days to come. And when my next check comes in, I'll surely be making a contribution on the PayPal site!

I had one question or suggestion; have you ever thought about making the player interface look like an old Emerson or Admiral wooden tabletop radio? I used to listen to WHOO on an Emerson, and there's nothing like the feeling of clicking the on button and waiting for the tubes to warm up, then hearing that clarinet melody winding its way out.

Great work, and please don't ever close this site down!

Hi:

I have been listening to your web site for a long time now. I am a veteran of WWII who was part of the invasion at Omaha Beach and the battles at St. LO and the battle of the Bulge. I have been playing this music on the piano for a very long time especially for the GI's during the war and I really love your web site. I call it my kind of music. The music of today does not compare. I have passed your web site on to many people of my era and they all love it. I'm Beginning to see the light is one of my favorites also. I have a neighbor who I gave this web site to and he plays the clarinet. We have a great time listening to the music you have on the web site and we try to play a duet with this music. We have a good time. Is there a way to have other songs that I like added to your web site? I found your web site by accident looking for the music of my era. I got lucky. Hoping to hear from you again soon.

Your Happy Listener,

George Goldstein

Hello,

I just want to thank you for your awesome WW2 music webpage. I am a high school American History teacher and every time I teach the WW2 unit I have an activity the students do to capture the essence of life on the home front during the war. While they are working on the activity, I play your music through my ceiling speakers to set the mood. I see the kids tapping their toes and tapping the desks as they work. Thank you so much for this valuable resource!

Sincerely,

Dear Marion,

I have to say I just love your site. I teach American History to middle school kids. When you can infuse music into your lessons, it makes it so much more interesting. I just happened to come across your site and I love it. We are celebrating D-day in school and I am using your music in my PowerPoint slide show. Bravo, Yvonne

Why, isn't it wonderful!!!! I just discovered your 6thcorps music site... Tears came to my eyes. I am not American, but the USA of those years represented for all of us, the hope for liberty and democracy. What a change...!!! Well, let's not get in arguments.

Just wanted to thank you for the beautiful music you offer us...How do you say? Thanks for the memory!!!

The soundtrack of my very early youth, my first of everything....

Keep on the good work...I have downloaded some pieces that are warming my heart....

Please, don't stop adding...

Just wanted to let you know how much I appreciate your site and efforts. I called several of the assisted living activity coordinators in the Charlotte, NC area and told them about your site. Great job and God bless!

Good Morning,

I am a bit of a history buff and very interested in the era. 3 of my uncles served in WW2, 2 in Europe, one in Panama, and my father was in the Navy, stationed out of San Diego. He saw action in 5 major battles.

The music drew me in, and when I saw the boards, I was hooked!

God bless, Brenda

Marion,

Thank you so much. I was on the net looking for a birthday present for someone who will be 97 in February. He was in WWII, in the army, and I think I will download the music and make some cd's for him.

This music is so meaningful, not only for those that heard it first hand in the 40's, but also for some of us baby boomers.

Thank you for your service to our country. I appreciate it very much.

Go with God.

Blessings,

Love your site. I am a 51 year old living in Florida. I have a couple of questions. How often do you change the playlist? Also, I saw Orchestra Wives recently on DVD and was wondering do you have any of the Glenn Miller music from that movie? I'm talking about People like You and Me, At Last, and Serenade in Blue. Thanks for have such a great website.

Hello,

Thank you for your prompt response. After I wrote you I phoned our son---a computer guru. He told me the same thing as do you, here in this email. He also said that not all music is copyrighted. So I shall have at it.

Glad you looked for Helena. I should have mentioned that I manage the web page for ships named Helena.

<http://www.usshelena.org/>

She had a life from 1945 until about 1962 or so. She was in moth balls for a number of years and then was sold for scrap in the early 70s. Not sure about dates off the top of my head.

I looked at some parts of your web page and will certainly look at more. Have always been a WWII buff.

I am retired military with 27 years' service. Most of my winter hours are spent adding to and improving our Helena web page.

From late spring into early fall, my wife and I spend our days working on our flower beds and shade gardens and of course, another web page. <http://www.usshelena.org/gardens.html>

All but two pictures on this page were taken by me.

Again, thanks for writing!!

I am a non-military retiree in Florida. A friend sent the web link to me and I have really enjoyed musical memories. We have a developing DeLand Naval Air Station Museum adjoining our airport. It is a "labor of love" as veterans refurbish and restore military items. I thought it would be great to have the music of the era on CD so that it could be played in the background at the museum. I would also love to have a copy. Am willing to donate/purchase to get a copy on CD but cannot spring for a large amount as I am on Social Security. Would securing a copy of these or some type of download for dollars be possible? Thanks for the memories...

Hi... Just thought you might enjoy hearing about my meeting with Jack Fortes, a member of the board of the DeLand Naval Air Station Museum to donate the four disks of WWII Songs. I came away...so motivated. I had not met Jack. He is 82. Met with him following his workout at the YMCA. He was stationed at DeLand Naval Air Station in 1941. Upon discharge he worked for several large metropolitan newspapers and finally ended up as Public Relations and Information Director at Stetson University in DeLand, retiring 17 years ago. Jack's hobby is big band music and he showed me scrap books from high school and down through the years of the big band leaders he had seen live. The most unique thing, he knew what I was going to donate to him and he brought his scrap books and his CDs of WWII music to show me. He told me how; one of the fellows had visited the old canteen and taken the list of...

Hi Marion,

Your site is fantastic! My Dad found it a month or so ago and loves the music in particular. One concern that he had was the legal issue surrounding downloading the songs without any payment. Can you let me know if there are any copyright issues? He would like to download some of the songs but feels uncomfortable doing so at the moment.

<http://www.6thcorpsmusic.us/>

Thanks!

Dear Marion,

A friend sent me to your web page. I found the music you have assembled totally wonderful. My wife and I host a July 4th party and this year's theme is a 1945 USO party. We have my 18 piece swing band booked and will host about 225 guests. I am an Army vet (1971-73) serving in the Dental Corp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. If any of the music (and the Bob Hope USO tours) is available on CD or tape, I would love to purchase it. It will be played for our guests (many vets) during dinner. Please let me know. It would be perfect for our party.

Thanks,

Drew Trapani

Dear Marion,

I too grew up listening to World War II stories. My father was in the Navy. He served in World War II and the Korean War. I remember all the old songs from that era. My mother remembers a song called, "Green Eyes". I did not see that one on the list. Thanks for all the great memories. Wish you could have had your Dad longer. Mine passed away at age 71 in 1985. He was 32 years old when I was born so he was a bit older than most fathers of that era. I wish someone would start a radio station with all these old songs. I know there would be many listeners.

Marion,

CD's arrived in yesterday's mail. Have listened to a few cuts. They are fabulous.
Thanks. Drew

Hello

Just found your site 'VI Corps Proudly Presents the Music of WWII'.

Thanks for such a great site... I am wondering if you know, are the songs listened there all in "Public Domain"?

Thanks again!

Ed

Marion,

This is Father's Day and my daughter gave me the four CD's that you so very kindly sent to her, at my request. I LOVE them.

I had received an Email from a friend of mine which included the four disks. I tried copying them so that I could play the music in my car but was able to do so. Forwarded the CD to my daughter who wrote and told me that the disks were blocked and it was impossible to copy them.

Unbeknown to me, my Daughter contacted you, told you that I loved the music, that I too was a WW II vet. After reading her message, you copied the CD's and sent them to her. She lives in Maryland, I live in Florida and she came down for Father's Day, the four CD's in hand. I am so grateful to you for sending them.

Would be interested in finding out where your Dad served. I was in the European Theater, armored forces, landed on Utah Beach and fought in all the major battles. We were theater troops and were sent all over Europe. Made several river crossings, and ran into many Engineer Battalions. Just was curious.

Again, many thanks,

WOW!

I just want you to know I am a War Baby. My birthday is Nov 20, 1943. My name is Fred Lue and Wife's name is Pat. I was looking for WWII music and your site is the best.

We are involved with the Honor Flight of the Quad Cities. If you are not familiar with this. The first flight is leaving the Quad Cities 1 Nov 08. We are flying WWII Veterans to Washington DC to see their Memorial before they pass. I thought it might be a good idea to do a CD with World War II tunes playing in the airport as they leave and come home. My wife's uncle will be on the first plane.

I have a story to tell you. We have a young son in the Marines. To get through his deployment, we started doing welcome homes at the airport with the Patriot Guard Riders. We wear Vest with our units that we serve with. We lost a flag on our van and when to a local flag store. We ran into an elder gentlemen looking for directions. He looked at my vest and said "I serve in the 7th Army and my name is Lou." I ask him what he did in WWII and he told me he drive supplies from the beach to the front lines. The German were shooting at me, but I didn't think that was combat! I said "Lou, that is combat!" I told him that there is an organization will to fly you to DC to see your Monument. He was surprise that someone is willing to send him to DC to see this before he dies. My wife and I lost it. Tears Flowed. I gave him our telephone number and said call me.

Two months went by no call. When we found out her Uncle was on the list to go this November, I wondered if we could find Lou. My wife's Aunt said yes, I know the family. So off we went and we found him. I gave him an application and he is on this first flight!

Thank you for what this site means.

Pat and Fred Lue

What a great site. I was wondering if there was a larger list of favorite songs / music that was played during the 2nd World War. I have a copy of the Rodgers & Hammerstein treatment for the Victory at Sea, but, I am not sure that some of that music was written before the mid-50's when they put the series together. Where can I go look to find this kind of info?

Hello Marion---

First thanks for sending to me the transcript of Harold Whiting Sr. Hopefully using this as a model I can prompt my dad to begin writing.

Your music page is incredible--- in fact all of your pages are incredible and well done. Are the VI Corps pages a hobby or a full time job for you? Definitely you have some knowledge and skills when it comes to constructing webpages.

Several years ago I started--- but really did not finish—a page for my history students. Not nearly as elaborate as your music page.

I don't know if you have any need or interest--- but here are some links for you.

Have a good day.... and again, thanks...

I have recently had forwarded to me the music collected by your contributor (www.6thcorpsmusic.us/). Is there some way that you (or he) could format the page so as to enable me to download it or copy it to CD for my personal use?

My interest is simply that I was in the Army during WWII and that music brings back many memories.

Dear Marion,

Some friends and I are making an amateur movie about a family in southwest Virginia during World War II. I found your website (<http://www.6thcorpsmusic.us/>) when I was searching for music from the World War II period and was wondering if we could use some of your music in our movie. We plan to enter the film in the San Antonio Independent Christian Film Festival, and possibly provide it for sale if it is successful. We might also submit the soundtrack into the competition and provide it for sale. If so, the soundtrack would be comprised of original instrumental music as well as the World War II classics used in the movie.

The songs we are considering include:

Comin' In on a Wing and a Prayer

This is the Army

This is Your War

Keep the Home Fires Burning

Send me your love for Christmas

American Patrol

Do you own the rights to these songs, or will we need to contact someone else about using the songs? If you do own the rights, would you mind if we used some of your music? We understand if you do not wish for us to do so.

Thank you,
Kate Burch

Hello Marion,

I have to say you have a very impressive website! Thank You for sharing this with the world. Presently, I am involved in making a free video for the surviving members of the 22nd ADG 97th Repair Squadron who serviced and maintained the B-29's in India and on Okinawa. I was curious about your music (especially the Vdisk) selections which you have on your web page. Is there any way I could possibly download a few of the selections to use in my project? This video is dedicated to my late Father Charles as a labor of love and not one done for profit or recognition. I would appreciate any help you might be able to offer. Sincere Best Wishes, Ken Beyer

Hi there,

I'm not sure if I am writing the person who started this website, but if this is the write address I want to say thank you for such a great site! I googled WWII music and your site popped up! My husband and I LOVE the music from those days, we are just fascinated with that era! Both of our Grandfathers were in WWII. His Grandfather was in the ARMY in Europe, and mine was in the NAVY in the Pacific.

We have the utmost respect for any veteran and wish they received the credit they deserve.

Anyway, thank you for this site....we love the music and I will pass it along to my family.

Sincerely,
Kimberlee Greene

No I didn't know you were writing a book. I wrote "Winter Storm, war in northern Alsace" 16 years ago, it is hopelessly out of print, I can't get the publishing rights back from Turner but I make illegal CDs. I happened to find your site by accident. I don't even remember what I was looking for or if I was looking for anything in particular. Alzheimer's? I hope not. Maybe it is the WWII music? I am surrounded by piles of books, I am trying to re-organize my library and I can't think straight. I know about the 540th, the 36th, the 290th and maybe others. Some were used in combat as the 290th in the Colmar Pocket. I organized a trip for them 15 years ago. Most of those I met are dead now. I can certainly help you with the Alsace-Lorraine part. Don't hesitate to ask questions....

So back to work! Regards, Lise

... It's for my father who is 82. WW11 6th Infantry Division. It really brings back memories he listens to it on the computer and now he can play it for my Mom with the cd's. I even enjoyed listening to the music.

Thanks

Hi,

I found your site by accident and I love it! I am a WWII reenactor and sell WWII theme t-shirts. I am adding a link on my shirt site at www.soldierandwar.com, check it out.

My kids are Ethan (confessed WWII nut), Marlie (future ballet star) and Katelyn (not sure yet, but leaning towards bare knuckle street fighter or politician LOL!). That would blow their minds, they would love it.

Thank you for the great tunes!!

Mark

(Marion's note: I told him I would place their names (see thank you page) on the website. His response was, "that would blow their minds...")

My name is Michael J. Renahan, Lieutenant Colonel (Ret) USA. I'm beginning a long thought of but never acted upon research of my late father SSG Raymond J. Renahan; Whose WW2 service includes the 1115th Engineer Combat Group and the 2833rd Engineer Combat Group. He also received a Certificate of Merit from Major General Raymond McLain for Conspicuously Meritorious and Outstanding Performance of Military Duty.

I'm looking for where to start and thought this would be a great place. I also have found your musical collection most enjoyable. Any help or guidance you may provide is most appreciated.

Thank you,

Great site! I run a WWII web site at www.295th.com. I was looking for WWII era music and came across your wonderful page immediately. With your permission, I would like to download some of your songs and use them in various parts of my site, such as our Flash photo album (slideshowpro). I'd be sure to reference your site as the source and provide a link.

I hope it's OK; I embedded your player in the USO section of our forum. If not, I'll remove it. I was just thrilled when I found it! Let me know. I've also provided a reference to your web site in our links section. I'd like to list you as the "official" source of music for the 295th on our new page (see attached).

You can read about our company at the new Wikipedia page (work in progress) I'm creating, as well as our web site. I'm attaching the mock-up for our new web design, which will be going live in a week or two.

Please let me know if all this sounds good. I look forward to hearing from you and again, your efforts are very much appreciated by this great-grandson of a WWII veteran!

Thanks again!

Thanks for the memories....have been able to isolate the download problem I was having and have rectified it...

Also, I am just a stone's throw away from you, in Mayville, Tuscola Co.

I do have another question for you.....can I download in batch, or do I have to do one at a time?

We have several WWII vets in our congregation that love the music I have gotten from your site and would like to have a cd of them all. A couple broke down in tears when they heard some of the songs that they do remember from the time they were in the marines and army in the big one.

Do you have a problem of me making cds for them?

Best regards....

Nelson

Dear Marion,

Thank you so much for sharing the music from the World War II era. My father served in World War II and is still living, although he is now 92 and his health is declining.

I am in the process of scanning all the pictures he took while serving in Africa and Europe. I hope to be able to then burn a DVD, so that he can view them on his TV, since his vision is poor.

The reason I am e-mailing is that I would love to also include the music you have on your website from World War II. Is it available to purchase CD or for download?

I was reading the list to my father and considering how poor his memory has become, he remembered almost all the songs on your list. He doesn't have a computer, so I would love to be able to give him this music to enjoy.

Please let me know if there is any way I could have access or record this music for him. I have found some CD's with recordings similar to yours but not the selection or quality of songs you have.

Thanks again, my mom and I did an over the phone sing along thanks to you.

Thank You for Your Time,

Pam Bray

P.S. Dad was in the 9th Signal Corp of the 9th Division

Marion, Thanks for your speedy response to my Email, It must be my software, If I click on a song it will play as long as I continue to scroll up and down with my mouse, if I stop the music sound also stops, Also I cannot click to another song.

I will accept your generous offer and send you a check for the CD's, you should get it next week, and thanks again, I have been looking for these song for a long time.

In Reference to our memories, If you are interested I have in my computer a couple of reports that were officially prepared as " after battle reports" by the Division, plus one of GI stories of the 97th. This I could Email to you, to look over, to see if it meets what you are looking for.

Also I have a CD with quite a few pictures of the Artillery Battery I was with, which includes amphibious Training, our time in Europe,( ETO) plus after a 30 day furlough our approx. 3 Month in Japan. This CD includes approx., 20 to 25 photos of Germans, in uniforms with their heil Hitler salutes I scoffed these up in one of the house over there.

To give you a little back ground the 97th was scheduled for the pacific we were Packed and ready to ship out when the " Battle of the Bulge" broke lose, so They moved us from Calif to the east coast and we were on our way to Europe with one other Division The 86th so actually we got in to the tail end of that war, there was a shortage of troops with the Bulge and they need replacement bad. Many replacements we also received were support troops, Cooks, Mechanics, Etc...

Hi

My name is Ben Evans.

I'm putting on a drama production for my gcse set in World War Two and I've been using your music player to find some really good old songs from that period of time.

I found a song that fits into my play perfectly called 'Somewhere in France With You' but your music player doesn't seem to tell me who the artist is and I wondered if you could help me out by telling me who sang it?

It would be a great help if you could reply

Thanks a lot

I AM A WW11 VET AMD WISH TO THANK YOU FOR BRINGING BACK A WONDERFUL MUSICAL ERA
SALTZPEPPER

I have been turned on to your site and although just born at that time, have really enjoyed some of the music.

What I would really like to do is something special for a very special person, my father in law. He will be turning 85 August 1st and it is a little much to try and teach him the use of a computer now. What a great surprise it would be if I could furnish him a cassette tape of the music you have posted. I would love to give him this surprise and would be willing to purchase this from you or tell me how to get it and

I will make the tape for him. He is a proud retired soldier and he loves the music. Can you help me do this surprise present? THANK YOU so very much and I appreciate any consideration.

Sincerely,
Steve Vickness

THANK YOU, THANK YOU!! I appreciate you getting back to me. I am sending the check TODAY. I appreciate it sooo much. My father in law will be THRILLED....

Stephen Vickness

Again, THANK YOU SO MUCH. This will make his Father's Day a special 85th!

Dear Marion,

THANK you so much for the Music of WW2. Love it so MUCH!

Dear Mrs. Chard,

I want to thank you for one of the best collections of WWII music I've been able to find. I spent many hours over nearly a year searching for all of the best music of WWII. I'm a WWII historian and my father was Army Air Corps in the Pacific Theater during WWII. He gave me the squadron history of his outfit (305th Airdrome Squadron). I spent over a year putting it together with a day to day history of the squadron. I met and talked with his line chief and his first Sgt during the course of my endeavor. I finally finished the whole thing and put it on CD with all the pictures he and many of his fellow soldiers had taken. I made two types of disks. One for a DVD player and one for the computer. Both have a large selection of WWII music in the background played or sung by the original artists.

Your collection is outstanding I wish I had found it when I was working on this project (which has now been turned over to the Silent Wings Museum in Lubbock TX).

Thank you again,

Darrell G. Puckett SMSgt (USAF) Ret.

THANK YOU FOR THIS GREAT MUSIC; IT BRINGS BACK MANY MEMORIES EACH DAY THAT I VISIT VI CORPS SITE. CAN YOU PUT A 1941 TUNE MARIE ELENA BY JIMMY DORSEY ON THE SITE?

THANKS AGAIN FOR YOUR EFFORTS. ED MILANO

Just wanted to tell you how very much I am enjoying the music @ 6thcorpsmusic! I'm a 27-year-old graduate student in Victoria, BC, in Canada. I was very interested in WWII when I was much younger (my favorite film as a teenager was Mrs. Miniver!) and I've come back to it again just recently. Anyway, I just discovered this site last week and I can't tell you how happy I am to have found it! There is no music today that compares to this stuff, I think. I listen to it all day while I'm at school and working.

Merry Christmas!

Becky Littlechilds

Just wanna say thanks for the tunes...I am 37 years old but I just love this kind of stuff...I hope you put up more....thanks again...mike

Oh God bless you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I've been looking for old WWII songs like this for 6 years now!!! You are a life-saver!!!! If only you could know how happy I am!!! I am only 15, I'm sick just in case you're wondering what I'm doing out of school... but I practically live in the 40's and have been since I first heard "Take the A Train" on a record when I was 4. And somehow I stayed loving those days, and even dress nice even now, with only nice clothes, and always wearing a hat when I leave my house. Today is my birthday (imagine being sick on your birthday...) but this is the best birthday present ever. If you need any donations just tell me; I will give you as much as I can!

I've always preferred those days over modern times, mostly because these days, if you're anyone, you will love all kinds of violence, sex and drugs, you'll like to dress in baggy jeans, and you're dating at age 10.

Thanks again for making my day!

God Bless you,

And God bless America!

- Paul

Dear Marion:

I know I have heard much of this music before in my life but I cannot remember it, because I was born September 3, 1943. I know my mom and dad played it while I was in my crib. I feel very comfortable when I hearing it.

I had an uncle who died in WWII on a B24 with the 93d BG.

I later joined in the 60's and retired from the Army in 1988, carrying on the tradition.

Best Regards:

SFC Dave Youngblood USA

Dear Marion,

I found your site surfing the internet, looking for WWII material. Opening the broadcast it felt like a warm blanket instantly.

Thanks for your efforts to put this on the internet to be found for everybody.

I will be attending D-Day anniversary on the 6th of June in Normandy this year together with a bunch of friends who I motivated to go with me. I hope to meet many people there with the same love for that era.

Greetings from the Netherlands,

Mike

Dear Marion

I came upon your website quite by accident while researching World War II history and music of that era. Wow, what a pleasant surprise when I began listening to those wonderful songs. Since I was born during those years I myself have a great passion for the history during that era and would love to add this music to the history I am working for my family members in honor of the service my father; father-in-law and husband gave to our country and think it would be a great addition. My question is: Is this available on a CD for purchase or is it only available by downloading? I will anxiously await your reply. Thanks so much for bringing this fantastic music back to life and I am thrilled I can add it to my list of favorites.

Dear Marion Chard,

I just wanted to take the time to thank you so much for putting together such an amazing website. I came across it while I was searching for different WWII songs. My grandfather was a P51 Mustang pilot in the war, he passed away last year, and I miss hearing the songs he used to sing. I was beginning to think he was the only person that remembered any of them!

Again thank you so much. Amanda Alberson

Have just found this site - this evening. I was thinking of my Dad, who served with the SAAF and was seconded to RAF during WWII. I was looking for the music "I'll be seeing you" which was a song he loved. He was an awesome dancer and I remembered my parents dancing at various functions. He met and married my mother in Italy where she was nursing for the Queen Alexandra Nursing Corp having nursed in a hospital in London during the Blitz.

They taught me to appreciate the music of their time and it brings back such happy memories. Sadly they have passed to glory, but are forever in my heart. My younger son is hoping to be accepted into the Royal Marines towards the end of the year; he is the spitting image of his Granddad and we are very proud of him.

Thank you for this site - it is a blessing to so many people.

God be with you.

Victoria Preece

I so appreciate your site and music. I was not in the war (too young) but am a history buff. I realize that WWII made this country strong and drew us together like nothing else. The people who fought and died gave us the ultimate gift--your music helps keep that fresh in our minds.

Thanks, JIM CHISHOLM, Knoxville, Tenn., USA

Marion,

Just wanted to say Thanks for these wonderful tunes from my Fathers and Uncles generation. Listening to them bring back many memories when I was very young my Father and his Brothers would get together on weekends and sing and play many of these songs. Most of them served on one front or the other. My Father was a Gunner in the Navy and saw action in the Saipan, Iwo Jima and Okinawa campaigns. One of his older Brothers was an Infantry officer who was fortunate enough to spend the war training troops here in the states. Another Brother was also in the Infantry and served in a National Guard unit and I believe saw action in Europe. His younger Brothers fortunately were too young to serve during WWII but one saw much action in Korea in the Infantry. The youngest was afflicted with Parkinson's disease and was unable to serve.

My Father and one of his younger Brothers have passed away and I only have memories of them now. Your web site is such a treasure I had to download all the music you had. I will let my surviving Uncles know about you. Perhaps they will tune in. In closing I want to thank you and all your Brothers in Arms that stood up and defended Freedom and allowed me to have a wonderful family and a wonderful life. Thank you again for the wonderful memories of my Father and Uncles.

Best Wishes,
Charles Stafford

Hi Marion....Jim here again....just listening to the song Land of Hope and Glory and I want to tell you what this means to me. First of all, the music is from Edgar's Pomp and Circumstance March...played at almost all graduation ceremonies.

MY story. I was born Feb 2 1926, my wife was born Jan 28, 1926, and we were "roommates" in the nursery at Mercy Hospital here in Muskegon. Then we went through St. Mary's school together, starting to date seriously in 10th grade. We graduated June 10, 1944. I went directly into the army. Joined the 65th Division at Fort Shelby, Miss. in late Nov 44. They were all packed to go overseas. We left Shelby on

New Year's Eve and landed in France during the Bulge, had to stay after the war ended. I didn't have enough points to come home. Did come home in Jun 1946....2 years, 2 days and 2 hours was my stay. We were married on Nov 16, 1946. At that time the Catholic Church wasn't encouraging the use of the "Wedding March", they thought it too pagan....because of the way it was used in the opera. So Theresa and I choose Pomp and Circumstance for our wedding march. After all, we had just marched to it 2 years before. St. Mary's High school choir sang our wedding. That was 64 years ago. She is now in a nursing home and I go every day to see her. So you see, Land of Hope and Glory is very special to us. Oh, there are many other songs on your list that mean a lot, but not like this one.

Thought you might like to hear what your music means to us WW11 vets.....God bless and keep up the good work. Jim Zuidema

Hello,

I am an education student at Central Michigan University and I would like to take a minute to thank you for hosting such a wonderful website. I believe in incorporating music into classroom settings to help set a tone and mood of an era (I am going to be a History teacher). Often it can be difficult to find era-appropriate music that can be played or downloaded without great charge to the teacher. Your site was wonderful; I was able to create several WWII cds specifically geared to specific lessons (Europe, Home Front, Pacific, etc.). With several of the songs, I am able to help address propoganda in music as well.

Thank you again for running such an amazing site. It is a veritable treasure trove.

Thank you,
Holly Sleight

Holly later added:

Of course you may use my letter for your site! I am also sharing your site with my fellow History education students at CMU.

I noticed that you gave your father's name and rank. I think this is also wonderful. My grandfather, Robert Sleight, was a Marine in the Pacific during WWII. He saw action at Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Tinian and Saipan and came home to marry and produce a family. I am extremely grateful that he came home safely, and am very proud that I am a part of that man.

Sincerely,
Holly Sleight

Fantastic! I'm 78 yrs. old, and the songs stirred up some great memories and emotions.

Marion Just wanted to drop you a line and say Thanks for the great tunes. I'm only 40 (still look in my 20's though) But I love listening to the 40's era music. Your site is the best I've found yet, and have been listening for some time now. I did my time in the Marine Corps 89 to 93 and am a vet. I sure do appreciate the men and woman of that area, and still do. Great people of a great time, and still enjoy talking to them. Their numbers are dwindling, but I won't ever forget them, their service, and sacrifices.

Hello,

I have been listening to your "Music of WW II" for quite a while now, and must say it is absolutely fantastic. I had an idea for an addition to the collection if it was possible. Check out the song "Win the War Blues" by Sonny Boy Williamson.

Thanks, and keep the music coming!

Your site is fantastic. A friend passed it on. It elicited many happy memories and much tears, as well. That Lili Marlene cracks me up. I am a WWII vet and past President of the 100th Infantry Division Association. We just concluded our 60th or so Annual Convention but many of us are still kicking and maintaining contacts. We also have a great website for our progeny, friends, and historians at www.100thww2.org, and much of our archives are located in the George C Marshall Library www.marshallfoundation.org/100thsplash.htm covering our France and Germany exploits.

Good Luck and again, thanks.

Marion:

First, thank you very much for your 6th Corps Music site, and sharing the open content music on it. Like you, I have an interest in preserving the memory of that great moment in our history, through music and other means. Your site had a number of songs or versions of songs I had not heard before, and I greatly am enjoying it.

I hope to return the favor in two ways. First, I left a far too modest donation to help maintain the site; second, below are updates to the artists of some songs. The info is to the best of my knowledge, and most of the info is what the CD stated where I originally got the song. In each case, I did compare my version of the song with yours and they sounds identical expect where indicated: (Marion's note: please see our "Song list Page" regarding Brandon's contributions)

Thanks again,
Brandon Ohrns

Marion,

I just discovered your website yesterday. And have been listening and enjoying the WWII songs all today. It brings back many memories.

I was assigned to the 1273rd Combat Engineer Battalion and wound up in London in December 1944. We put up homes in places that had been bombed.

Keep up the good work.

We operate a site where flight simmers to learn about the history of the Ragged Irregulars of the 91st Bombardment Group and we recreate and fly their missions.

Many of us enjoy listening to the 6th Corp music as we fly. You have done a wonderful job in making this available.

Is it possible to imbed your player into our website with appropriate thanks to the 6th Corp so our members could listen while browsing our site?

Thanks for the memories! My soldier is gone now, but I remember the songs. Some of these are new to me, but many are those we danced to, listened to, made love to. He wore the Army uniform from 1939 until 1945. We were together for 56 years -- what a miraculous gift! And then I wrote our story: The Soldier and the Baby Doll.

Great job!! Great music. Loved the Bob Hope clip. It wasn't my era, but my dad's. Still sounds great. I will introduce him to the site in July when I see him next time.

Mrs. Marion J Chard,
I just came across your Web Site with WWII songs today. Thank you for doing it. I have sent link to several of my friends today. Here is a WWII song you do not have. Do not know how you would put it on your web site though. The name is "I Came Here To Talk For Joe".
